Chapter 1: Introduction to Clinical Assessment. Patient presents with chest pain and shortness of brea

Chapter 2: Differential Diagnosis. Consider acute coronary syndrome, pulmonary embolism, pneumon

Chapter 3: Investigations. ECG, troponin, chest x-ray, D-dimer testing recommended for evaluation.

Chapter 4: Management Plan. Oxygen supplementation, aspirin, cardiology referral for further workup.

Chapter 5: Follow-up Care. Outpatient review in two weeks with repeat bloodwork and lifestyle advice.